

The Midnight Company's next offering of its hit JUST ONE LOOK at The Blue Strawberry, and their first 2026 show after three dozen straight sellouts In Residence at the Cabaret space, will be Thursday, January 29, 7:30pm. Tickets are now on sale at BlueStrawberrySTL.com or by calling 314.256.1745.

The show, which features the stories and the songs of Rock Legend and Goddess Linda Ronstadt, premiered at Blue Strawberry in March, 2023. Critics and audiences were both dazzled by the production and the singing of Kelly Howe as Ronstadt.

Joe Hanrahan, Midnight's Artistic Director, who wrote and directed the show and plays Lenny Anderson, a British rock journalist interviewing Linda, said, "Almost immediately, extra performances were added, and they've continued on a roughly monthly basis for just about three years now. Many audience members have come back multiple times, usually bringing friends with them to see the show. And it remains a joy to do."

The justly praised Just One Look band consists of Curt Landes (Music Direction/Piano), Mark Rogers (Drums/Vocals) and Tom Maloney (Guitar/Bass.)
